Schweizerische Gesellschaft für Geschlechterforschung SGGF

Our goals are:

Promoting gender studies and their long-term institutionalization at Swiss universities and in research

Representing the interests of gender studies at universities, in decision-making bodies at universities, in other research institutions, in education politics

Promoting exchange and cooperation between academics in the field of gender studies (both locally and internationally)

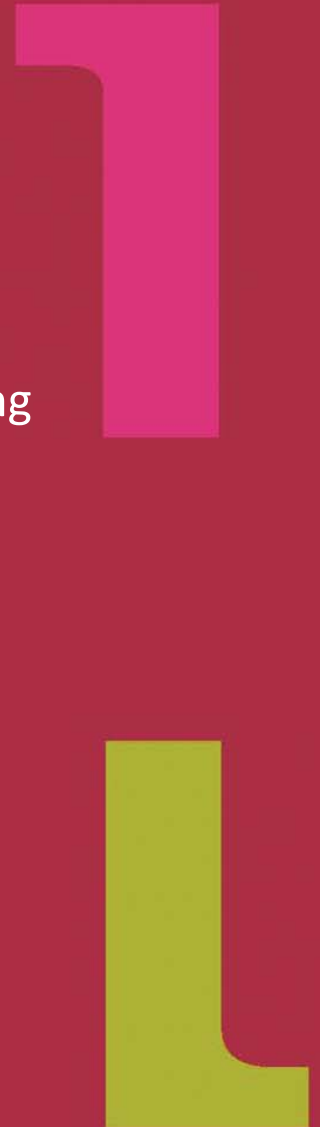

Offering expert knowledge for the public

Representing Switzerland in international scientific societies and research organizations in the field of gender studies
